Any Community College of Vermont student, faculty, or staff member who has experienced sexual misconduct, domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking is urged to immediately seek help. Help includes seeking medical assistance, notifying law enforcement, seeking counseling or crisis response, and making a report to the College. CCV will provide assistance upon request.

CONFIDENTIAL RESOURCES AND SUPPORT

Victims and survivors are encouraged to make a prompt report to law enforcement and to the College. CCV does not offer counseling services; however, an individual may seek support and resources as designated below. Confidential community resources will not share information with the College, nor will speaking with a community resource trigger action by CCV unless there is imminent threat to self or others.

REPORTING OPTIONS

We encourage all individuals to make a prompt report to CCV by using any one of the contacts below, but we recognize that individuals may choose to make a report of sexual misconduct, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking to any College staff member or instructor. All CCV staff and faculty are required to refer such incidents to the Title IX coordinator who, along with a small team of CCV administrators, will ensure a prompt and equitable review, investigation, and resolution.

Review, Investigation, and Resolution

CCV will support any complainant or respondent in understanding how to navigate the complaint processes. In general, CCV, after consultation with a complainant, will follow the implementing Procedures for VSC Policy 311-A: Sexual Misconduct, Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, and Stalking. The College may refer the matter for investigation. At the conclusion of the investigation, disciplinary action may be sought using the Policy 311-A implementing Procedures.

CCV will not tolerate retaliation and will take immediate and responsive action to any report of retaliation or any violation of protective interim measures.
