

October RESOURCE HIGHLIGHTS

FREE • CONFIDENTIAL • AVAILABLE ON-SITE

Applying for US Citizenship?

Mercy Connections offers free Citizenship Test Preparation over Zoom by appointment on Mondays noon-5pm and Thursdays 9-10:30am. Students will work 1-on-1 with tutors to study United States history, government, and geography. Each class includes practice questions and answers from the U.S. Citizenship Test and time to practice ELL skills.

Looking for affordable dental care?

VT Legal Aid has this handy state-wide list of dental clinics that offer low cost or sliding scale services, including the VT Tech Dental Hygiene Clinic, which offers cleanings for $30!

Looking for supports for a child with a disability?

Kayla's Directory lists the resources and services in Vermont accessible and/or specific to children with disabilities, including adaptive sports programs, physical therapy, financial support, and educational testing. The Vermont Family Network offers a variety of supports for parents of children with disabilities, including a confidential peer-run helpline (802-876-5315), support groups, individualized virtual support, and grant funding for uninsured medical needs.

Looking for activities for kids ages 0-5?

The EHCO Early Learning program (EEL) is offered twice a week at ECHO and twice a week at The Family Room and includes engaging activities, story time, healthy snacks, helpful tips and support for caregivers, and time exploring ECHO's exhibits.

Please note that this is not a drop-off program - caregivers are required to stay. Masks and vaccine cards required.
