FREE Tax Preparation Resources

There are free tax preparation services in the community for basic returns. If you have questions about in-person, drop-off, or self-file options, please see your Resource Coordinator. The IRS does not typically begin receiving returns until January 15, 2022 and the deadline this year is April 18, 2022.

Definitions: In-person = appointments one-on-one with tax preparer, Drop-off = leave your material with tax volunteer for pick up later, Self-file = websites that provide free tax software for you to complete yourself.

IN-PERSON APPOINTMENTS

Volunteer Income Tax Assistance – CVOEO – Dial 211

For tax households that report $57,000 or less in 2021, dial 2-1-1 to make a tax preparation appointment with a Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) volunteer. This year, due to COVID, CVOEO is hosting appointments at the University Mall.

In-person and limited Drop-off available. *Franklin & Grand Isle County residents can call Rebecca Moyer at 802-527-7392 x107. Dial 2-1-1 to learn about free tax preparation sites available statewide.

IN-PERSON/DROP-OFF/ONLINE ASSISTANCE

Volunteer Income Tax Assistance/TCE – AARP

AARP hosts free tax preparation services for the community, to serve seniors but they are open to all. Appointments are required for In-person or Drop-off assistance, call or register on-line via the website. Info to Self-file on-line through AARP Tax Aide Foundation can also be found at <https://taxaide.aarpfoundation.org/>

SELF-FILE ONLY

United Way's MyFreeTaxes.com

United Way provides the only free tax filing online platform supported by a nonprofit that allows taxpayers of any age to file both federal and up to 3 state tax returns for free. There are no income limits to use this platform for simple returns. Visit www.myfreetaxes.com to begin. Self-file only.

Visit Vermont Department of Taxes to learn about additional FREE, self-file, online software.
