The Free Legal Clinic's How-Tos!

Did you know that nearly every month, there is a free legal advice clinic for Vermonters to call into? The First Congregational Church UCC of Burlington is hosting a FREE Phone-In LEGAL CLINIC on Sunday, May 15, 2022. Their phone-in legal clinics are open to all in the community with any legal concern or question.

Here's what to do!

- All seeking legal assistance are asked to call (802) 862-5010 between noon and 1pm to request an appointment. All appointments will be between 1 and 3pm. (They cannot promise each caller an appointment but will do their best to serve as many people as they can.)
- A Legal Clinic volunteer will answer (or return) calls, asking for: contact information, name, phone number, email address, and the category of legal concern to be discussed.
- Callers reaching their answering machine, are asked to leave their name and phone number for a call back.

Goodwill Vouchers Available!

Working Bridges has vouchers available for use for at your local Goodwill locations. Vouchers come in $10 increments and can be used for household or personal items. If you have just located to a new place, need assistance with clothing or other personal items for yourself, or growing family members, stop by to see your Resource Coordinator to pick-up some! Vouchers are good through the end of June.

Rides Available for Franklin/GI Counties!

If you are a resident of Franklin or Grand Isle Counties and in Recovery, rides are available for you to access to get to medical appointments, support groups and even for job access. Check out this link for more information on whether you qualify!
