About Excelsior University

Excelsior University is an accredited, not-for-profit distance learning institution founded in 1971 focused on providing educational opportunity to adult learners.

Excelsior provides educational opportunity to adult learners with an emphasis on those historically underrepresented in higher education.

Excelsior meets students where they are – academically and geographically, offering quality instruction and the assessment of learning.

Accreditations and Recognitions

MIDDLE STATES COMMISSION ON HIGHER EDUCATION

An institutional accrediting agency recognized by the U.S. Secretary of Education and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation to conduct accreditation and pre-accreditation (candidate status) activities for institutions of higher education including distance, correspondence education, and direct assessment programs offered at those institutions.

SPECIALIZED ACCREDITATION:

NATIONAL CENTER OF ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

The National Security Agency (NSA) and the Department of Homeland Security designated Excelsior as a National Center of Academic Excellence in Cyber Defense Education for its Bachelor of Science in Cybersecurity program.

A center created to serve the needs of veteran and military service members.
