POLICY

The Community College of Vermont recognizes the rich resource of its broad community of alumni and seeks to engage alumni in supporting the College in a variety of ways.

PROCEDURES

1. Any activities of CCV alumni or former students should be organized for the purpose of building community among CCV alumni, contributing an alumni perspective to the College, and/or supporting and promoting the College in pursuing its mission.
2. All alumni and former student activities must be conducted within the established policies and procedures of the Community College of Vermont.
3. Alumni are added to the CCV Now email distribution list upon graduation utilizing the personal email address they used in the application process. Alumni may unsubscribe at any time.
4. Official CCV email addresses for alumni are inactivated a year after graduation.
